FOOD FOR FANS

Major Back Home.

"Dope" Major has returned from Clemson college and will be in the line-up of the Orr team Saturday afternoon when that club clashes with Gluck on the former's grounds. This match is expected to be one of many thrills and is well worth witnessing. Riverside will play Equinox the same afternoon, weather permitting and a hard fight is looked for.

Franchise Transfer.

Now that the Pennsylvania State league has collapsed there is talk again of transferring either the Troy or Albany franchise of the New York state to Harrisburg. The Pennsylvania capital wants baseball and will support the right kind, but it wants none of the "Hugh McKinnon-Lee Grob brand." The Pennsylvania state lasted two weeks, when the promoters threw up the sponge, leaving the players unpaid, as such promoters usually do. The National association, having had experiences with the men floating the organization, denied it protection. Some of the players cast about went into Al Lawson's Atlantic league.

White Is Cocksure.

Chicago, June 8.—Charlie White believes in counting his chickens before they are hatched. The Chicago left-hander is so cocksure that he'll be returned the world's champion after his contest with Freddie Welsh in Buenos Aires in July that he's promised Ritchie Mitchell first crack at the title.

White has promised to sign for a championship match with the Milwaukee lightweight as quickly as he returns from the South American republic. Mitchell can meet him at the steamship dock in New York, if he chooses, with the necessary set of articles.

"Why shouldn't I give him the first chance?" White said. "He certainly has demonstrated in his matches with Welsh, Dundee and Kilbane that he's as good as any lightweight contender."

It would mean a bigger financial return for me than meeting some other lightweight."

Smythe Cup Fight.

Greenville, June 8.—Running true to form that made them a dreaded pair to all opponents during the tournament, Marjant and Manning won the play off and broke the tie in the Smythe Cup tournament on the tennis courts of the Sans Souci Country club yesterday afternoon and by their victory over Beattie and Arrington, won the right to challenge Prevost and Cely for the championship.

Their victory however, was by no means the walk over that so many had expected which is clearly shown by the fact that the match Monday afternoon resulted in a tie, darkness putting an end to it with the score two sets all and two games all on the deciding set.

Into the Big Show.

Charleston, June 8.—When the first half of the 1916 season of the South Atlantic league passes into baseball history on June 21, Dana Fillingim, stellar heavier of this circuit, will pack his grip, bid his teammates good-bye or au revoir, and take a train for Cleveland where he will hitch his wagon to a star in an endeavor to break into the "Big Hundred of balldom." He will be given until July 15, President Walsh stated today, to show whether or no he possesses the necessary goods to keep him in fast company.

The Cleveland Americans seemed to realize a good thing when they latched it and immediately proceeded to take over Bob Walsh's offer on the incomparable "Dana." The determination to give the young Georgia heavier a tryout was reached yesterday by the big league team which immediately informed President Walsh of the step.

Due West Game.

Honore Path, June 8.—Several from this place attended the ball game at Due West Monday between the Fountain Inn and Erskine teams. Erskine won by a score of 4 to 0.

Golf at Charlotte.

Charlotte, June 8.—Charlotte golfers redeemed themselves yesterday when Walter M. Paul won the qualifying medal with an 1 and the team won the Capers memorial cup with an aggregate score of 350 for its four members.

It was a great comeback for the local crack, and with his team-mates, Brem, Laxton and Porter, he managed to add additional honors for the local club.

It had been predicted that the Mecklenburg team would win the Capers cup, the home team always producing its four best players, while the visitors often miss are minus some of their cracks. Charlotte's team was picked well, although the score shows J. M. Scott and J. A. Jones both tied with Vernon Porter. The next team to Charlotte was Columbia, the present holder of the cup, but the Palmetto state golfers were 17 strokes behind. Then came Charlotte, Wilmington, Asheville, Greenville and Greensboro in order. Regularly as strokes divided the winners and the last team.
